Memminger's reputation. The pamphlet diction over the case, at least until farther before us, has some faults of style, but upon the whole it is eloquent, and creditable | bunc. to its author.

Texas .- By reference to another column it will be found, that it was not Gen. Somerville, (as stated in our last,) but Cols. Fisher and Green, who commanded the detachment of Texian troops captured by the Mexicans. We hope St. Ana will keep the pledge given by the Mexican officers, to whom this brave band was forced to surrender, as it would be nothing short of cold blooded murder, should they be sacrificed by his orders.

Southern Credit.-The Journal of Commerce says :- "We are happy to learn from our largest houses connected with supplying the Southern trade, that the ongagements were never more promptly met than they have been this winter. The tion of State Debts; and the issue of two rates of Exchange, also, never approxi- hundred millions of paper money, on the mated more nearly to par than now, with the exception of the State of Alabama."

U. S. Loan .- The Charleston Mercury of the 3d inst. states, that the balance of the United States six per cent Loan having been taken, the authority given to the -South Western Rail Road Bank, to receive Deposits to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, on account of It was prepared in the interval of a single and that such rates only can keep up the that loan is at an end.

Extract of a letter received by a gentleman of this village, from a friend in Newberry District, dated FEBRUARY 1, 1843. day in this month, I have only to say, that the friends of all the candidates in this section are very sanguine; our present worthy member will, no doubt, distance the others, at, and in the immediate vicinity of the Court House, but from accounts received from other parts of this district, 1 am induced to believe that Col. Brooks will, especially, in that portion of the district adjoining Lexington, give our worthy member a bard race. Lexington's vote, without a great change, will-make the member. Col. Burt's friends do not leave a stone unturned, but from present appearances, I think his chance a bad one, in this and Lexington district. Our present member will beat Col. Burt in this district, at least three to one, but your of the minority. "Old Planter," as Piney Woods terms him, I fear, will not be far behind. Should Edgefield stick to ber own candidate well, we shall, I fear, loose our present worthy member."

New Candidate for the Presidency .-The Hon. Silas Wright has been nominated by the Union Champion, Reusselear county, New York.

U. S. Senator .- The Legislature of Indiana have elected the Hon. Edward A. Hannegau, formerly a Representative to Congress from that State, United States Senator, in place of Mr. Smith, whose term expires on the 4th of March next.

Naval Court Martial .- The Baltimore Patriot says, that the following officers embrace the Court Martial in the case of Commander Mackenzio-being 11 Captains and 2 Commanders :

Captains Downes, President; Read, Bolton, Turner. Sloat, Smith, Storer, McKeever, Page, Gwinn, Wyman ; Commanders Ogden and McKean.

Wm, H. Norris, Esq., of Baltimore, is appointed Judge Advocate.

The charges against Commander Maekenzie, are for murder, oppression, and illegal punishment, with a variety of specifications.

Acquital .- The Philadelphia papers state that Commander Mackenzie, and his brother officers of the Somers, have been unanimously and honorably acquitted from all blame, in the part they acted as regards the mutiny on board that vessel, by the Court of Inquiry.

The Execution of Cromwell .- Baffled in her former application to Judge Betts. for an arrest of Mackenzie and Cansayort in charge of murder, the widow of Crom well yesterday made a similar application of Judge Lyuch, in the Court of Sessions. It was found upon the same alledged facts as the other, and Judge Lynch refused to grant the warrant desired for the same reasons which influenced Judge Betts.

On Sonday night last it became cool, and on Monday morning, morning, the operations having been re-Snow commenced falling thick and tast, stricted to positive orders, which were and continued to do so until the middle of the day, but owing to the warmth of the earth, it melted nearly as fast as it fell. from the other side, per Caledonia, at Bos-Tuesday was clear and pleasant-Wednesday, very cold and windy (Thermometer standing at 20 degrees at 11 o'clock, a. th.) and on Thursday morning, at sunrise, good demand for the grices, prices rallied, the mercury was only four degrees above zero! the severest cold we have experienced since Feb. 1835, when the China and the last two days, however, the market has other tender trees were killed The distant | been depressed, and holders to bring out mountains are still covered with snow, buyers have in some instances submitted and we may expect very frosty weather so long as that is the case .- Greenville Mountainter.

Murder.-We learn from undoubted auhority that Mr. Lea, a hog drover from Kentocky, was shockingly murdered on his return home, a few days ago, in the mountain region of Virginia, by two men who travelled with him the principal part of the day on which he was murdered. It seems that he was shot by a pistol in the back part of his head while passing through a lonesome region of country; he fell from his horse instantly gasping for breath. The robbers thereupon rifled him of his pocket book, and were in the act of riding off when they were suddenly brought to a stand by the appearance of two mountaineers, who happened to be close by, hunting game in the woods. It appears that the two hunters had not separated long in the forest before they heard the report of the pistol, and each taking it for granted that the other had shot at something, they both ran to see what had been shot; both fortunately bounded into the road about the same time one a little above and the other a little below the robbers. Seeing the sight described, they quickly sprang the triggers of their rifles and bid the murderers stand or die. On approaching Lea they found him in the lest agonies of death; but he was able to tell who shot him, and who robbed him; he also told the hunters that the robbers had missed his money, which was concealed in his coat collar; and a few momeets after this he expired. The bunters then marched the robbers to the village iail. The name of the county and village

What a Fermer Should be .- A farmer should be well instructed in chemistry generally, more particularly as applied to agriculture; he should be well versed in mineralogy, peology, botany, and in the Vine Cuttings; Grafting; Fruit Trees; physiology of seeds, plants, and trees, and animals, including the species of bimana; make payment, for longer indulgence will he should learn geometry, measuration, not be given. &c.; he should study political economy so far as to have a clear conception of the sources of wealth and prosperity. In our republican Government he should be taught to vindicate them by ja terse and condensed elecution. It will be a happy William Maliet, vs. event for our country when our farmers, so educated, shall have the ascendency in our halls of legislation, and thereby put a stop to the fullacions special plendings of demagogues, who have already reduced our country, possessing all the means of prosperity in a pre-coninent degree, to a most pitiable condition, by their miserable

HAMBURG, Jan. 31. Cotton.-The past week has been one of rather an unusual dullness in our Cotton Market, which we presume is owing pretty much to the buyers waiting for the news by the Steamer Caledonia. It will be seen on reference to our "Foreign "The extensive Livery Stables, attached hand, which were received here on last evening. During the week, ending Saturday, the receipts have been large, and on vesterday and to-day, we noticed a great many cotton wagons in town. Prices last week ranged from 44 to 64 cis.; principal sales 5] cts.; good and fine 6 to 64 cents. The news by the Caledonia may be considered rather flattering, as it shews a firm market in Liverpeol, and a healthy state oftrade in the manufacturing districts. We are under the impression from what we see to-day, that we can venture to advance onr quotations on most descriptions, say, 5 to 5} and 6 cts. for principal sales. As the quality arriving is generally of the lower descriptions, our quotations should not be considered as a criterion for fair and choice cotton, which we think would command, when well put up, 6% to 7 ets.-
